Subject: Response to AS-904-20: Resolution on Faculty Choice of Virtual Modality

I am pleased to acknowledge and accept the above-entitled Academic Senate resolution. As the campus community continues to navigate the environment caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, it is important for faculty to be proactive and responsive to the ever-changing curricular demands. This resolution allows them to do both while meeting the needs of our students. I want to acknowledge the faculty at large for their adaptability, efforts and successes in our current environment.

Please express my appreciation to the Academic Senate and the Academic Senate Executive Committee for their attention to this important curricular matter.
